THERE'S SOMETHING QUEER ABOUT THAT.

Looking At Plainview High we see ourselves, Caught in Routine, Excited by Discovery, Distressed by what displeases us, Exhilarated in Participation. Enjoying each other in all we do--don't do. We are Plainview High.

Lydia,
It's been wonderful attending school with you.
Here's too the future.
Love Always,
Mike Merritt
Sr '66.

1965-66

Lydia,
your a real sweet and cute gal.
I have really enjoyed going to school with you this year, and we'll all miss you next year.
God's blessings on you in your future plans. Keep your wonderful personality.
Love ya.
Your friend,

Lydia, You have a very sweet and cute girl. You have a perfect personality. I've enjoyed you in speech the last semester.

DEDICATION

To the men and women of the United States Armed Forces this 1966 Indian is sincerely dedicated.

To these courageous men and women we owe a great debt. Our freedoms that we daily enjoy are a result of their personal devotion to the call of duty to their country. Especially to those who are former students of Plainview High School are we grateful.

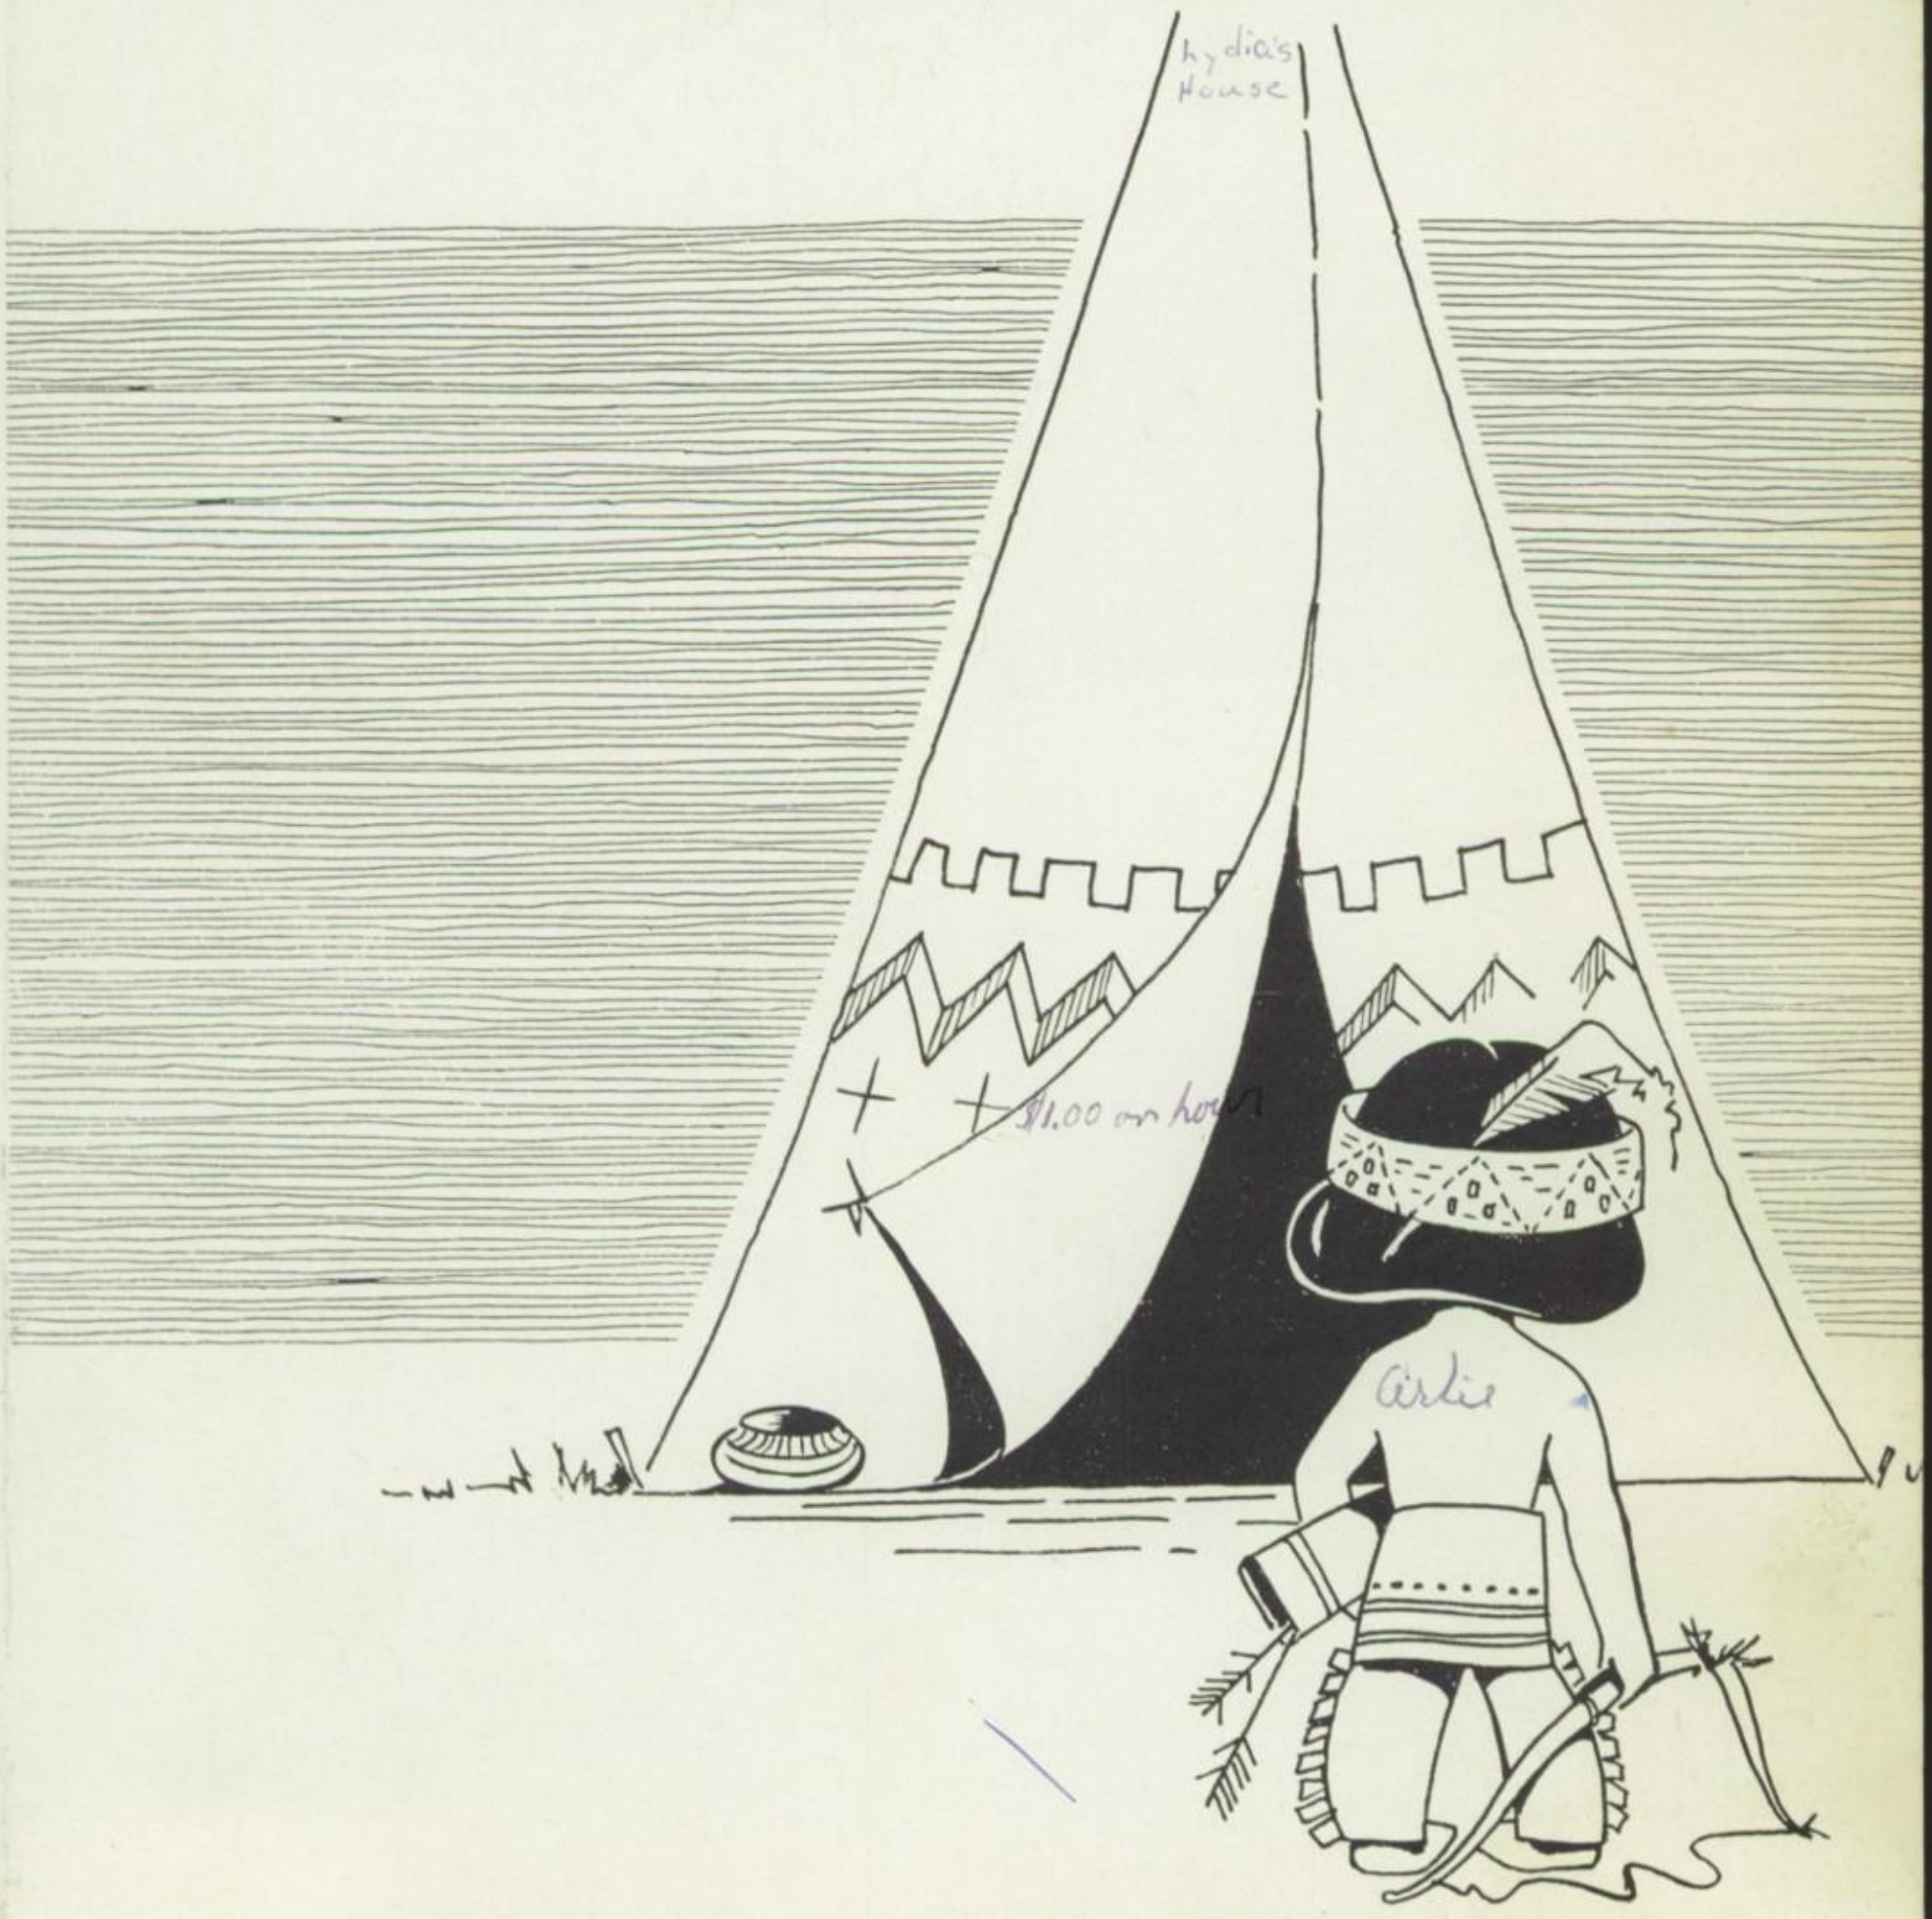
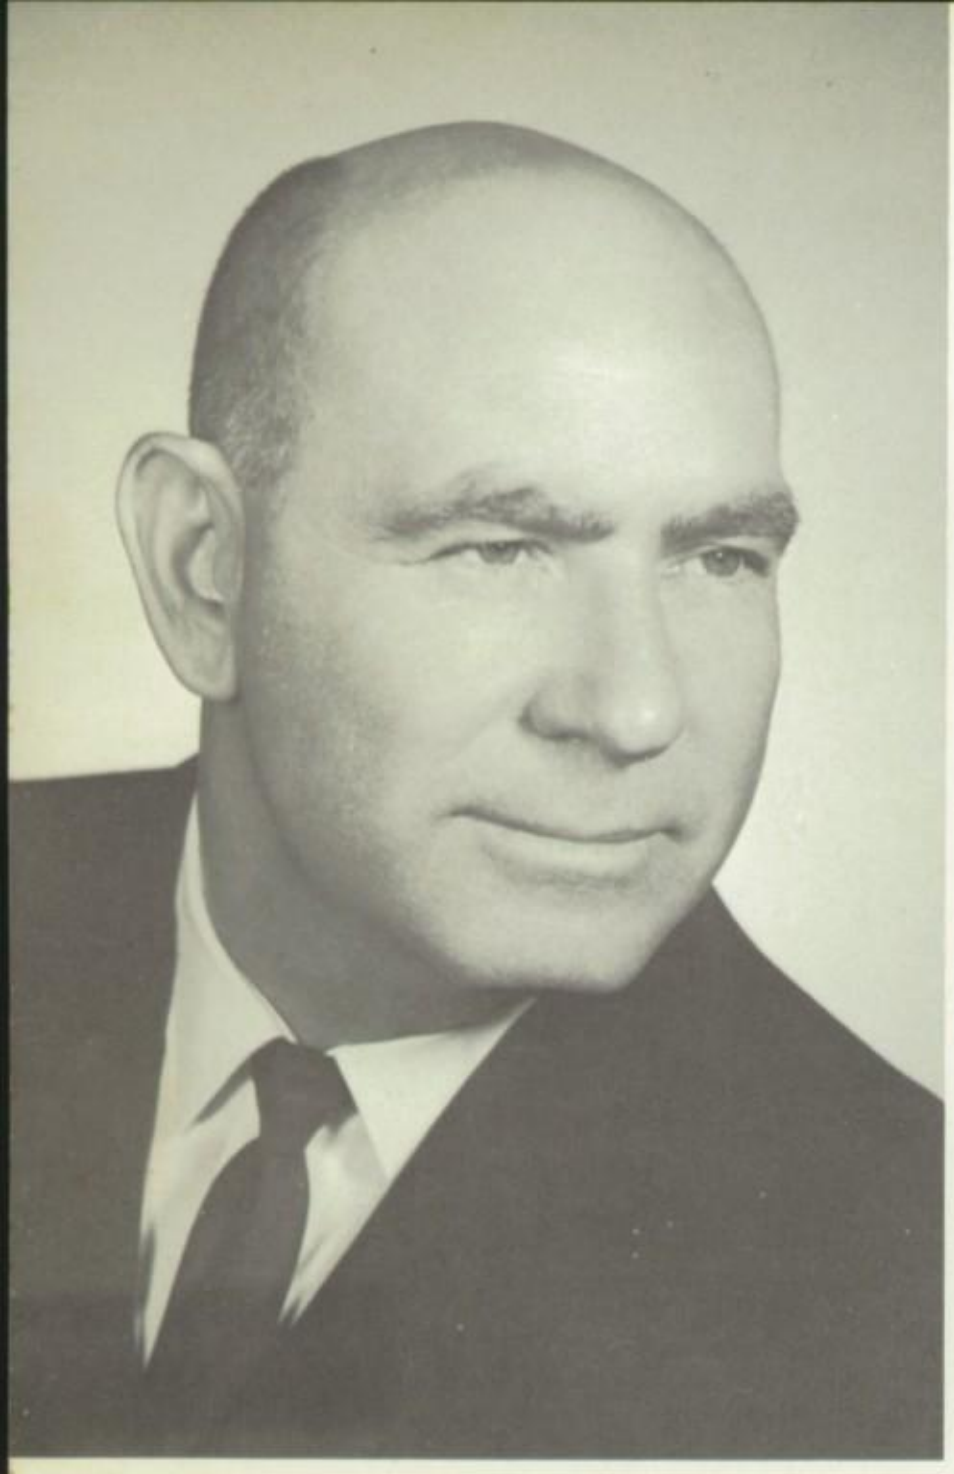
ADMINISTRATION





SUPERINTENDENT OF PLAINVIEW SCHOOLS

As I leave the Superintendency of this school, allow me to leave you with this commission-- be vigilant and alert; hold fast to your God and he will sustain you in all situations. Preserve, defend, and strengthen the democratic principles upon which this republic was founded, and you will leave a heritage for posterity, excelled by nothing mortal man has ever witnessed.

Busy men need hobbies to relieve tensions. Mr. Nall's hobby is airplanes. Below are pictures of him building his own.

Mr. Nall is getting ready to take a test hop in the gyrocopter that he built in his spare time.

After the gyro, his efforts were to the rebuilding of a four place Tripacer. Room enough for the entire family.

FORWARD MARCH

Here comes a parade! Plainview High School is on parade! Each student and teacher participates actively in this four-year parade. Each teacher leads his "band" of students through the crowded streets. Through these streets of Learning and Knowledge march the triumphant students who are coming another year closer to their goal.

Plainview High School has approximately five hundred people in this long parade. But soon forty-four of them will turn from the "band" and march into the street of the Future. Confronting them is all the anticipation, bewilderment and aspiration associated with innovation--a new life, a new parade in life.

These people are leaving behind their fellow students and marching away. Some of them may fall out of step, and some of them may change their course. But, the parade will still go on, and new "bands" will take their place.

Yes, the students of Plainview's parade will keep marching from today into tomorrow; from Plainview into the future.

Mr. Folsom and Mr. Youree spend many hours of tedious work and effort each year answering questions and solving problems for various students. John James, Linda Lavender, and Lee Williams ask questions here in this shot of the office.

What can I say except you are of the greatest! We have been through so much together I don't know where to begin. It seems we fell in love at the same time and fell out of love at the same time. One of these days we will find a [illegible] but not do we around. Sam [illegible] and didn't realize it. He'll be sorry.

Remember all the - I - - - we have pulled. Those were some of the good times. I appreciate you and Linda putting up with me.

I don't really see how you could find it looks like you'll be for I can't wait until we move to Dallas. We're really going to have fun.

You are an awfully sweet and cute girl. Always stay that way - and you'll be great.

I'm not going to say I love Larry but you know I do. If you don't remember me just remember him. He's a great guy just like me. Alexe (Linda, me + you) great too!

Lydia,

For a member of the Senior class you are tops. Remember all the good times we had when we were the BIG H. Well we still have the memories of those good times. Just never forget anything that you did and enjoyed and never do anything you would be afraid to say you have done. Think of all the nice things you have done and forget all the bad. You deserve the best out of life for you make everyone's life a little better. Just remember don't look back your life but your years ahead.

Ronald, who graduated with a grade point of 3.79, has received class scholarship awards in Oklahoma History and in dramatics. Ronald also participated in both the junior and senior plays, Beta Club, and German Club.

SENIOR PLAY "TUNE IN ON TERROR"

PRESENTED

OCTOBER 21, 1965

ABOVE: "You'll never get away with murdering us," says the Arkwright twins (Shirley & Jennifer) to Mrs. Dudley Fuddy (Barbara) and her son, Dil (Berlin).

AT LEFT: Mrs. Hammer tells Jikki (Shelia) and Dil to "Look Realistic" as Bart (Eddie) says, "Jikki Jerrold! Always monkey-doodling with another man!"

AT RIGHT: "Let us introduce ourselves, Arnold, the snake boy, (William); Rozika, the were-wild cat girl, (Connie); and Herr Dr. Klaus Von Schlasher, (Ronald)."

The entire cast looks on as Reverend Pete Moss (Mike) joins the young couple "in the Holy bonds of matrimony" for about the sixth time.

Dear Lydia,
finally, we did it!
I can't wait to wear
those caps n' gowns.
I hope we can find a better life for ourselves after we graduate, it's been tough at times, but we have had fun too. I will remember all the fun we have had together. I'm glad we were able to make lots more memories - like for our graduation. I can't believe that we have been friends for so long. It seems like it was only yesterday that we were meeting for the first time. Your friendship has meant so much to me while here at
I love you Lydia
Sincerely
